

The Entrada Institute

presents

Ann Torrence

Saturday, June 4, 7:30pm
Robber's Roost Bookstore
Torrey, Utah

Book Title: Highway 89: the Character of the American West

Author and photographer, Ann Torrence, drove over 15,000 miles on US89, exploring this historic route from Canada to Mexico, to photograph her book on the highway and its linkages to seven national parks. The story of tourism, national parks and rural development is as relevant today as when the highway was first commissioned in 1926. Ann will show a lot of pictures, share some stories from the road, offer a couple photo tips, and ponder the significance of what has been lost, retained and transformed in the rural west.

For more information on this presentation and all of the Saturday Sunset Series this summer, see: www.entradainstitute.org