

The Entrada Institute
presents
George Coombs

Saturday, June 25, 7:30pm
Robber's Roost Bookstore
Torrey, Utah

George Coombs, Wayne County long-time resident and sheep rancher, tells of his family's 90 years and his own 63 years in the sheep business. Coombs knows sheep ranching as a vital industry -- clothing troops in the wars and financially supporting many Wayne County families. Coombs knows "what it used to be like on the ranges" and how the sheep business came about and where it has gone

For more information entradainstitute.org. This series is free and open to the public.